Summary

In 2009 and 2010, more than 700 people who live and work on Aquidneck Island answered a simple question: what can islanders do to improve their own lives and the lives of their neighbors? Community conversations were held in libraries, schools, houses of worship and workplaces in Newport, Middletown and Portsmouth.

Themes

- Ready to learn: every child enters school prepared and supported
- Healthy neighborhoods: access to care, healthy food and safe places to be active
- Good jobs year-round: reducing the effects of seasonal employment
- Connected community: transportation, civic participation and belonging
- A living culture: arts and history that include every resident
