Rosalind Atherly Fellowship in Social Work

Information Session · 2026–2027 Program Year

The Ferrowick Foundation

Why this Fellowship?

Most social work field placements are unpaid.

The Fellowship pays island nonprofits so they can pay Fellows for internship hours.

Who can apply?

- Aquidneck Island residents
- Accepted into a BSW or MSW program (full or part time)
- No other source paying for internship hours
- Committed to a social work career on the island

What Fellows do

- Full academic year placement at an island nonprofit (Fall 2026 – Spring 2027)
- Monthly learning sessions with local social workers
- Annual conference and networking events
- Final report and experience survey

How to apply

- Review the How To Apply page and this presentation
- Complete the online application
- Deadline: February 27, 2026
- We anticipate 2–3 Fellows for 2026–2027

Questions?

info@example.org

Tobias Mendel-Ayers, Special Projects Manager